

STEM WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT IN MAINE

Session III

Maine, STEM and COVID-19 Response

Wednesday, December 2, 2020

1:00 to 3:00 p.m. ET

Science is US

ABOUT THIS SERIES:

These virtual discussions will provide participants with best practices for businesses and stakeholders to help recruit, train and expand the STEM workforce in Maine. By the end of the series, a set of recommendations will be developed to help shape future decisions in Maine.

SESSION III SPEAKERS:

Introductions:

DANA CONNORS

President, Maine Chamber of Commerce

Panelists:

CHARLIE WRAY

Vice President of Education,
Jackson Laboratory for Genomic Education

DEREK MCKENNEY

Sr. Manufacturing Engineer,
Puritan Medical Products

DR. CANDICE CHEN

Associate Professor,
George Washington University

BEN GILMAN

General Council, Maine Chamber of Commerce

Moderator:

ANDRÉ N. PORTER

Policy Director, Science is US

For more information about this event, visit the Maine State Chamber of Commerce -Calendar of Events (www.mainechamber.org) or click HERE to RSVP today.

Event Sponsors:

